Report on Ecosystem and Transfer Of Knowledge

As a higher education institution, St. Vincent Pallotti College recognizes the growing importance of innovation and transfer in driving societal progress and economic development. The college is not only a center of academic learning but also acts as a catalyst for entrepreneurship, research application and community impact. This report highlights the initiatives and structures we have put in place to foster a thriving innovation system. Our college is committed to cultivating an innovation-driven environment that nurtures creativity, entrepreneurship and impactful research. Through sustained efforts in research, industry collaboration, student empowerment and societal engagement, we aim to be a hub of knowledge transfer and a contributor to national and global innovation ecosystems. The college conducted the following activities to promote an ecosystem for innovation and transfer of knowledge to the students:

1. Fit and Healthy Lifestyle for Adaptability of Management Skills
2. Seminar by SEBI on "Investors' Awareness on Capital Market and Role of Depository"
3. Techno Update
4. Workshop on "Explore Career in Interior Designing and Fashion Designing"
5. Financial Awareness Programme
6. Quiz Competition
7. Programming Hackathon
